The (when you get so) fat General Chow.

Original Version by Axl & Tae Bond.

There once lived a chicken named General Chow. The General liked sunflower seeds, and when you put her out with the rest of the chickens, you could tell she was fatter than the rest. The rest of the chickens were named, named Bush, Chile, Silly, and Baldhead, General Chow had many names, Jumpy, the fat chicken, Dumpy, the escape chicken, the building chicken, and more to come. Chilly was the happy chicken, Bush is the dumb and the waddle chicken, Baldhead is the sweet chicken, Silly is the just the well... the silly chicken. The chicken's goal is to get up a mountain with the most handsome rooster on top. General Chow wanted the rooster to get more sunflower seeds. Bush wanted the rooster the most, but the rest of the chickens out voted Bush because she was too dumb! Silly wanted the rooster to be safe. Baldhead wanted the rooster so she could sleep on some real eggs. Chilly wanted the rooster so she could be even more happy. They started climbing the mountain, but Bush got up first and her waddle was so long that the other chickens climbed up it to get to the top. They had found a rooster. Chilly was the one to get to the rooster first because she just wanted to be even more happy. They walked down the mountain wing in wing with a smile on her beak. They had baby chicks, Chilly was a caring mother. Later in the day, when we came to take them, she said no, with a beak that meant don't do it. The rooster came and gave a loud, "Rrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrr!" which meant, "Go away!" in chicken. He was known for being angry at the people that touched his chicks. Chilly was scared. She had to puff up so the other chickens didn't peck the poor chicks. The rooster was happy to have Chilly. She was very kind chicken. General Chow was sad, her goal was to eat as much sunflower seeds as possible, before her time was done. She wasn't going to stand not having these sunflower seeds. All of the chickens where sad but Chilly was sitting in the sun with the rooster drinking water. The rooster was so kind that he let Chilly drink before he did! They danced danced and danced as chickens do. Then they took a poo. The chickens were happy birds. Their chicks that they raised grew and grew until they were as big as poor General Chow. Wait, as big as General Chow! and General chow is fat oh no!

The End!
